

Product Development: Substantially Similar Product Development

Looking to make a product that is substantially similar to one on the market?

Investigate patents and sources of active ingredient to assure there are no conflicts

GCMS Analysis to determine all ingredients and their proportions

Develop a formula to produce product

Prototype Manufacturing/
Sample generation

Generate Studies required to register product

Submit Registration Packet to the EPA and obtain registration

Develop Market Container and Register it with the states

Manufacture Product and pack product into market containers

Begin Selling Product